

Hi Folks - Ken Brilliant here with a hot and long-awaited item - yes (!) Laughing Clowns' - *Cruel, But Fair 3 CD Anthology is in production - at last - and we expect delivery any day!!!

To Ed's dedicated followers we'd like to offer a special touch. The first 200 people who order Cruel, But Fair direct from Hot/Didgeridoo will receive a Numbered and Signed copy - hot-off-the-press, literally, at a special price of $60.00 including free postage and packaging.

Ed and Jeffrey have just completed a phenomenal pit-stop tour and added bass player, Peter Oxey, for their Sydney and Melbourne shows and I've been told they have a few more surprises on the way for their next series of Live shows.

Eternally Yours
 Ken Brilliant and the crew at Hot Records / Didgeridoo

3 CD SET WITH EXTENSIVE LINER NOTES, SUPERB PACKAGING AND PHOTOS IN A 24 PAGE BOOKLET

In 1973, while still at high-school, Ed Kuepper formed The Saints. After 3 seminal albums The Saints split whilst in the UK in 1978. While Chris Bailey carried on using The Saints' banner as his own, Kuepper returned to Australia to form an even more progressive group, Laughing Clowns.

It was the Clowns, alongside The Birthday Party and The Go-Betweens that helped throw off Australia's cultural cringe in the '80s. They were original, a collision of guitar and brass that amazed and challenged audiences around the world.

The Clowns' legacy may be forgotten by most, but Hot Records now rectifies this with the release of Cruel, But Fair, a beautifully packaged 3-CD Set containing every Laughing Clowns recording with track by track notes by Ed Kuepper. These albums sound as fresh and exciting today as when first released and remind us how powerful innovative & wildly experimental rock 'n' roll can be.

After the demise of Laughing Clowns in 1985, Kuepper has gone on to enjoy a fruitful solo career, but more on that in a month or two ...

HONEY STEEL'S GOLD 2000 RE-ISSUE	HOT1036-R CD	5035135103697	$20.00	<input type="text"/>
This honeyed, steely, golden matrix of acousto-electric splendour was companion to The Aints' Ascension and the extension to the previous Today Wonder. All were recorded and released within a few months of each other - and sound so vastly different. Featuring the hook-laden The Way I Made You Feel and one of Ed's all-time greats Everything I've Got Belongs To You this album became the most successful of Ed's career at the time and was the first-ever Independent album to debut in Australia's notoriously conservative Top 50, hovering there for 12 weeks, peaking at #28. This 2000 Re-issue features 7 bonus tracks.

For this man who cares about his music, one can hear in this collection why so many of his compositions have become classics. Whether it's the hot-roddin' sound of Pissed Off, the swingin' If I Had A Ticket, the bossa-nova bongo-beat of Black Ticket Day, the symphonic sound of Everything I've Got Belongs To You, or the mellow candle-lit croon of This Hideous Place, for starters, there's something here to please young and old, shakers and swingers, loyal fans and casual listeners alike! Don't wait, make a date with Ed - and let him Sing His Greatest Hits Just For You!
